Dear

Thank you for your letter of 1 March inquiring as to the possibility of employment by this Agency and enclosing various personnel records, which I am returning herewith.

We will send to you separately appropriate forms for application for employment. If you will complete the forms and return them to us, we will survey our situation to determine whether we have a suitable vacancy for which you might be considered. After such determination has been made, you will again be contacted.

Your interest in this Agency is appreciated.

Sincerely,

JS/RH

Thank you very much for your kindness in sending me the copy of [redacted] I think it is a very excellent magazine and one that is needed in that field.

I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you if you come to Washington, and, if I ever get to [redacted] you may be sure that I shall look you up.

With very best wishes.

Sincerely,

I allow myself to address to you directly this Survey of International Opinion, of which I believe several common friends already spoke to you. I should be only too glad if this work could be of a little use for the common cause. I feel very grateful to you for the kind words you gave to me before leaving [redacted] and I am, with best regards, yours truly, [redacted]
